Young Learner Residential Summer School Vacancies

Now recruiting Activity Leaders

Bell Language and Activity Programmes are looking to recruit enthusiastic and creative Activity Leaders for their Young Learner Courses to be held this summer at six UK independent schools.

Activity Leaders will plan, prepare and lead sports and activities. They will also participate in activities being led by other staff, assist on excursions and undertake pastoral duties.

With over 40 years' experience, Bell knows what makes the perfect Young Learner programme – exceptional student care, academic excellence and an exciting cultural and social programme. Our Young Learner residential courses are tailored for overseas students ages 7-17 and run between June and August.

We run these courses at the following independent boarding schools: The Leys School, Cambridge; Wellington College, Berkshire; Cobham Hall, Kent; Bloxham School, Oxfordshire; Ardingly College, West Sussex and our new site, Wymondham College, Norfolk. Each school provides both staff and students with excellent premises and facilities and we offer accommodation, meals and professional development opportunities.
