The Job

- A Referee Mentor is the first point of contact for newly qualified referees and should encourage and support them in their early days of refereeing.
- This includes:
 - Visiting a local Grade IV course for introduction
 - Send a post-course congratulatory email with contact details
 - A follow-up personal contact (phone/event)
 - Visit matches – support, advise, feedback (positive but also constructive)
 - Abbreviated report back to RRC (2/3 line by email)
