

Conditions of entry:

In order to apply for the FIVB Level 2 Coaching Course participants must:

- Be recommended by their National Federation, which guarantees that the candidate has experience and is at the peak of his/her career
- Speak the working language (English)
- Actively participate on the whole course program, including classes and ceremonies
- Have spent a probation period of at least two years since the last course
- Have confirmation from the National Federation to confirm you are active and successfully coaching or teaching
- Present a copy of their certificates obtained at the FIVB Level 1 course* or of their physical education diploma from a university or comparable institute, together with the application letter
- Present a digital picture to put on the inscription form
- Present a Health Certificate from a doctor stating that he/she is in good physical condition and can participate in physical activities including practicing coaching skills on the court

*Participants without the FIVB Level I certificate must present a document certifying that they have national coaching qualification of a corresponding level that can be recognised by the FIVB, provided that the National Federation gives its recommendation and that the degree was obtained no more than five years prior to the start of the course.

Candidates who have graduated from a sport institute as a P.E. teacher with Volleyball specialisation are also accepted provided that the diploma was obtained no more than seven years prior to the start of the course. They must present their diploma to the organiser, together with their application (in case of doubt, the FIVB Technical Department will decide).

All participants must submit payment along with the FIVB Course enrolment form (which is attached). The total cost of the FIVB Level 2 Coaching course is: £1450, which can be made payable by Bank Transfer.

The application deadline date is the 11th July 2014. APPLY NOW as there are limited places available.
