

Dear All,

Re: FIVB Beach Get Involved Seminar 26th May – 30th May 2014

Volleyball England is pleased to announce that the FIVB ‘Beach Get Involved’ Seminar will take place from the 26th May – 1st June 2014 at FIVB/CEV Regional Volleyball Development Centre – Kettering (ENG).

Price: £530

Duration: 5 days (1 day London 2012 Legacy Volleyball visit)

Application deadline: 2nd May 2014

Location: FIVB/CEV Regional Volleyball Development Centre – Kettering (ENG)

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Express, Kettering

About the Seminar

The FIVB ‘Beach Get Involved’ seminar will give candidates industry-leading knowledge on beach volleyball skills, drills, organisation and participation development.

By the end of this seminar you should learn:

- Games, drills and techniques that are used in beach volleyball.
- How to increase participation and usage at beach volleyball venues.
- Knowledge of good practice through case studies.
- Insight and understanding in to the current trends and how these will affect the development of their beach venues going forward.
- How to organise and run a tournament and / or competition.

The syllabus includes:

1. Fundamental tactics of Beach Volleyball
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Equipment and infrastructure• Initial Structure of Training Sessions• Warm Up and Cool Down Techniques• Initial Coordination of 2 players• FIVB Drill book and videos• Video examples
2. Modern Technical Skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Advanced Warm Up routines, Setting, Introduction to Spiking Techniques, Side out Drills, Blocking and Defence formation• Set; Reception; Serve• Recommended drills

3. Theory
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rules of the Game, Score-sheet and Casebook • Statistics and use of VIS • Ethics
4. Beach Volleyball Event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Event Organisation, fundamental duties of the organiser / NF • How to organise an event • Practical examples
5. FIVB Overview
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development philosophy and development platforms • Operational structure • Role of the Beach Volleyball Council • History and development of Beach Volleyball • World Tour Structure, annual calendar and Qualification System • Continental Cup and Olympic Games (London 2012 Legacy) • National Federations Role in organising Competitions • Role and responsibilities of the players • Role of Promoters and Officials • Educational material and video examples
7. Advanced Tactics
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Team formation and systems • Side out, Defence, Team Work, Physical preparation and training plans • Mental Preparation
8. Tournament
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fundamentals in tournament planning • Practical training for participants • Preparation and administration of the tournament by the participants • Participants Tournament

You will leave the 5 day seminar with exciting ideas to implement in your venues. This includes a number of opportunities to discuss the current work being carried out by each candidate in their area/country; allowing to identify challenges whilst using the experience of other attendees.

Location

The course will take place in the FIVB/CEV Regional Volleyball Development Centre – Kettering (ENG). This facility is centred around Kettering Conference Centre's main sports arena. The centre provides top class sports facilities for International athletes and both international and domestic competitions.

The main arena has four volleyball courts and offers a wide range of additional facilities. There are a number of dining/bar areas situated around the complex.

The venue also has an on site gym and swimming pool available for public usage.

Accommodation

Accommodation will be provided by our partner Holiday Inn Express, a modern hotel set in landscaped gardens. Free Wi-Fi is available and a generous breakfast of cereals, pastries and fruit served each morning. All rooms include free Wi-Fi, Flat-screen TV, free tea and coffee and full air-conditioning.

Holiday Inn Express
Rockingham Road
Kettering
Northamptonshire
United Kingdom
NN14 1UD

For more information please visit:

<http://www.ihg.com/holidayinnexpress/hotels/gb/en/kettering/ormkp/hoteldetail>

London 2012 Legacy Trip - Crystal Palace Beach Volleyball Centre

The course includes a visit to the London Legacy Beach Volleyball courts at Crystal Palace, London. The venue will be hosting a tournament featuring local teams with on site entertainment and food. The day will include the opportunity to see how well established centres operate and should give participants an idea of how to stimulate activity using promoted events. Crystal Palace also demonstrates how major sporting events can benefit the local community and create a long lasting legacy.

General Information

In order to apply for the FIVB Beach Get Involved Seminar, participants must submit payment along with the 'Application for FIVB Technical Seminars' form (which is attached).

The total cost of the FIVB Technical Beach Seminar is: £530, which can be made payable by Bank Transfer.

The application deadline date is the 2nd May 2014.

APPLY NOW as there are limited places available.

For more info and payment details please contact Roman Neveykin on r.neveykin@volleyballengland.org, or call +44 (0)1509 227730