

Volleyball England Referees Awarded Prestigious Nominations from FIVB, CEV and World ParaVolley

Our referees continue to represent Volleyball England on the international stage after gaining prestigious nominations from FIVB, CEV and World ParaVolley.

Nick Heckford has a busy few months coming up after securing nominations from FIVB to officiate at the Woman's World Olympic Qualifier in San Juan, Puerto Rico in May, the World League in Budejovice, Czech Republic in June and for the World League in Matsosinhos, Portugal in July.

Sebastian Widlarz has received nominations to officiate at CEV U20/U19 Men/Women European Championship Qualification, which will run from 31 March-3 April. He will then be officiating at the CEV European Championship Qualification Small Countries Division and will be joined by fellow Volleyball England Referee Dominik Biegajlo, who has also received a well-deserved nomination from CEV.

On the beach, Greg Thompson adds to his impressive list of past appointments with a nomination from FIVB to officiate at the FIVB World Tour Grand Slam in Moscow, which runs from 25 – 29 May.

Glynn Archibald and Dee Wauchope have both been awarded nominations from World ParaVolley. Dee officiated at the 2016 World ParaVolley Intercontinental which ran from 17– 23 March in Anji, Huzhou, China, while Glynn will be flying off to Rio for the 2016 Paralympic Games in September.

Congratulations to all our international referees who continue to represent Volleyball England on the international stage.
