Volleyball England is the recognised National Governing Body for Volleyball, Beach Volleyball and Sitting Volleyball in England. Volleyball England is responsible for the development, promotion and delivery of Volleyball across England.

Volleyball England is working hard to modernise the image of the game and has set itself some ambitious targets for the expansion of its membership. This includes an increase in affiliated Clubs, of qualified, registered and active Coaches and Referees, of Volunteers and of players of all standards and ages irrespective of gender and background.

Volleyball England is currently looking to appoint a voluntary Technical Director.

Your role will include:

- To act as a Director of the English Volleyball Association Ltd in the best interests of the Company with honesty and good faith towards its members, employees, partners, funding agencies, sponsors and of the communities within which the Company operates.
- Review and advise on the company's Technical strategy and provide informed advice to the Senior Management Team and the Board.
- Support, guide and oversee the work of the Refereeing and Coaching Commission.
- Attend all Board meetings called during the year, unless prevented by exceptional circumstances.
- Attend the Annual General Meeting and such other Extraordinary General Meetings as may be necessary.

We are looking for a candidate whose skills and qualities include:

- An understanding and acceptance of the legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities of a Company Director.
- A proven track record of success as a key organisational player significantly involved in delivering strategic objectives.
